

WINDRUSH PIONEERS

To the Windrush Pioneers who took the first brave step towards Britain; each person was documented with cards detailing their information at Tilbury Docks on the 22nd June 1948.

The information of these landing cards have been recreated to represent those destroyed by the Home Office in 2010.

View the full passenger list of the first 1,027 passengers who stepped on Tilbury Docks ONLINE. You can search by name, port, gender, martial status, age, residence and occupation.

Answer the following questions:

1. What kind of jobs did the men do?

2. What kind of jobs did the women do?

3. How old was the youngest & oldest man who boarded the ship?

4. How old was the youngest & oldest woman who boarded the ship?

5. How many passengers were planning to live in London?

GROUP ACTIVITY: The Distant Future

In groups of four, please select one of the passenger landing cards & write using your imagination how their life turned in the next 10 years. Think about their career, families (where they able to bring their family over from the Caribbean), achievements, did they change location? Also, were they faced with any difficulties such as finding a job, living in poor conditions or social issues as people may not understand their culture?

The Four Sections To Focus On:

FAMILY

CAREER

ACHIEVEMENT

DIFFICULTIES

Your group will get 10 - 15 mins planning. Then you will separately write a section (half a page) & present the you "Distant Future" to the class.

GOOD LUCK
